GENTRY DEFENDS AMER. WOODMEN

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 18, 1918.
Mr. James T. Bush,
Clerk Camp 10, American Woodmen,
City.
Esteemed Neighbor:

Because the article appearing in the last week's issue of the St. Louis Argus relative to the suit brought against the Supreme Camp of the American Woodmen by Mr. J. E. Mitchell, was so misleading and the fact that my name was used in connection therewith, I feel that as ex-commander of Camp number 10, I owe it to the order and my host of friends who through my influence have joined the order, to correct the impression conveyed by the article in so far as I can. Hence, this letter.

Mr. Mitchell in his desperate desire to deceive and prejudice the public has exaggerated and misstated facts. Any one would glean from the article that I have been deceived by order and would not accept the position of Commander on this account. I emphatically deny that I have said anything to Mr. Mitchell or any one else from which they could arrive at any such conclusion. I was in conversation with Mr. Mitchell a few days before the article appeared in the Argus and told that I declined to accept the position of Commander for the second term but no intimation was made that I did so because I had lost faith in the order or was otherwise dissatisfied. I am utterly surprised that Mr. Mitchell would use my name in his selfish desire to prejudice the public against an organization which he knows that I regard as the greatest Negro concern on earth.

I was one of the first citizens of St Louis to unite with the American Woodmen. This, however, was after an investigation by which I convinced myself of the soundness of the order and the business-like methods by which its affairs are conducted. To illustrate how well I think of the order, I am now using all of my spare time in securing members in the 1000 membership drive that is now being conducted by my camp.

As I am desirous that you make this letter public I will give the facts in Mr. Mitchell's case. They are these. Shortly after Mr. Mitchell became a member of the order and during the time that I was Commander he was injured by being struck by an automobile. He presented his claim and the same was properly paid. Yet as one of the bases for his suit—he alleged that he was not paid. Again he claims benefits for sickness which occurred about the middle of February. He had paid no dues for February at the time he was taken sick and has not paid or offered to pay any since. So what under the heavens could he expect? Mr. Mitchell would also convey the idea that the case is settled. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Already the case has been appealed and will be tried in the Circuit court and will be carried to the Supreme court if necessary to settle for all time whether Mr. Mitchell or the Supreme Camp is right. It will then be time to announce to the public who is right and talk about a constable being placed in charge, etc.

Faternally yours,
T. L. Gentry,
Ex-Com. Camp 10

AMERICAN WOODMEN PAYS A DEATH CLAIM IN RECORD TIME

James H. Jones died Thursday night, Sept. 12 and the money to pay his claim was received Saturday, Sept. 14th. It is custom of the American Woodmen to pay their claims at the funeral and this would have been done in this case had the funeral been held on any other day than Sunday. The beneficiary was paid Monday morning. The usual delay caused in furnishing evidence of death is done away with. Each policy issued by the company has a receipt attached and it is only necessary for the beneficiary to sign this receipt and surrender the policy. There is no red tape or technical clause in our policies. You pay your dues and we pay you when anything happens.

GREAT REVIVAL AT OLIVETTE CHAPEL

Soul Stirring Meeting Breaks Out Voluntarily

The Olivette Baptist Chapel 4200 Finney Ave., is the abiding place of the Holy Spirit. Sinners are being converted, backsliders reclaimed and Christians from the Southland have found a church home and the chapel is figuratively in fire every evening. A house to house canvass is being made on West Belle, Fairfax, Finney and Cook Aves., by a special committee from the above mentioned church. Prayer meetings are being held every evening at 6 P. M. just when persons are coming home from work. Everyone is asked to stop in for a prayer. This work is in the hands of a special committee and although the doors are open for one hour, no one is expected unless they can stay the whole time. Bible institutes and preaching services are conducted by the pastor. Old time National Baptist Jubilee songs grip the soul and the sparkling, bristling truth of the gospel make it impossible for sinners to hold out. Five o'clock prayer services will be held Sunday morning and an overflowing [illegible]

NEW HOSPITAL FOR NEGROES

The Centenary hospital, at Garrison and Lawton Aves, is to be turned over to the city to be used for Colored people in the near future, according to a statement given out by Director of Public Welfare, Mr. John Schmoll.

It is understood that a Negro physician is to have charge of this institution together with visiting staff, internes and nurses.

This will be the finest hospital operated by Colored people in the country.

According to present plans, possession will be had in less than ninety days, and all of the Negro patients at the present City Hospital will be transferred to the new location.

REGISTRATION

The registration of voters of St. Louis Thursday, was quite a success. Organization work played an important part. The registration committee Mr. Gus Frey and Mr. Edw. Forstiel worked hard to bring about the desired results. Messrs. J. M. Weil, W. H. Banks and Jeff Covington ably assisted the committee, working night and day untiring in their efforts, which have won the commendation of all those around them.

MORE SUITS AGAINST AMERICAN WOODMEN

Following the published statement in the St. Louis Argus last week of the judgment won against the American Woodmen by J. E. Mitchell, other schemes of the officers have been brought to light. Other members are threatening to bring suit on account of debts alleged to be due them by the order. They give as their reason, they fear the American Woodmen on account of loss of members and judgments in the courts against the order, will force them to quit the State. So it seems that everybody that the order owes, is going to bring a suit. It is expected that two more suits will be filed against the order this week, a full account of which will be published in the St. Louis Argus next week.

Deputies and Members Quit

It has just been learned that one of the best deputies of the order in the city has quit, charging Jas. T. Bush and C. M. White with "bad faith." They say that Mr. Bush wants to be the "Big Man" of the order in St. Louis and in trying to make himself good with Mr. White, is driving the members from the order.

Many members of the order have quit because of lack of confidence. It is believed that Mr. Bush sent "distress call" to Denver when Mr. Jones died last week, as they claim the money for his insurance was here before Mr. Jones was buried. Of course, that will not save the order.

CONSECRATION OF BISHOP AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

On Sunday Sept. 29th, at 10:30 A. M. the Rev. E. Thomas Demby, D. D., will be consecrated Bishop Suffragan of Arkansas, in All Saints Church, Garrison Ave. and Locust St.

This service marks the beginning of a new era in the Episcopal Church. It is the first time that that church has admitted Negroes to the Episcopate in this country. In its entire history the Episcopal Church has only had two Negro Bishops—one was consecrated in 1885 for Liberia, and the other in 1874 for Haiti. Both are now dead and Bishop Demby will be the first of a line of American Negro Bishops in charge of work among American Negroes.

The congregation of All Saints is planning to accomodate at least a thousand people at this service, and it is suggested that those who desire to witness this historic event should arrange to be at the church early. The doors will be open at 10 a. m. No cards are to be issued. Admission is free to the public.

In order that all of the people of St Louis may have an opportunity to both see and hear the new bishop, the rector has arranged to hold a monster missionary mass meeting at 5 p. m. on the 29th. At this service prominent speakers from various parts of the country will be heard, as well as Bishop Demby. The ministers of the city are invited to be present with their congregations. The ministers will have seats in the chancel and a special offering will be taken for the church's work in Arkansas.

I wish by this means to extend my appreciation for the loyal help that I have received from my customers. STREET CAR CONDUCTORS ARE GETTING CARELESS

There has been considerable complaint lately about the carlessness of street car conductors in starting up cars without closing the doors and before passengers can get aboard. A near serious accident occurred Monday when conductor No. 2117 on car No. 1028, Jefferson Avenue line, signalled the motorman to start, at the corner of Jefferson and Olive, throwing a Colored woman off on her back. Witnesses say the car did not stop, as the law provides.

Y.M.C.A. MEETING

Mr. R. P. Hamlin, International Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Dr. Geo. E Stevens, Dr. W. B. Johnson and Mrs. Victoria Clay Haley, will be the speakers at the Y. M. C. A. mass meeting 4:00 P. M. Sunday at the Union Memorial Church, Leffingwell and Pine.

Mr. Hamlin has just returned to St. Louis, from a successful campaign in Evanston, Ill. He is intimately acquainted with the Association work throughout the country. He will tell of what the other cities are doing to overtake St. Louis.

At this meeting a large number of Y. M. C. A. workers have agreed to be responsible for $50, so as to insure a large collection for the Y. M. C. A's furnishings.

Beginning next Sunday, 500 ladies will canvass the city in an effort to help furnish the new building. The ladies are anxious to break the record they made in June, when $13,000 was raised by them in two days. Each household will be asked to contribute $1.50 and each block $30. Every race loving St. Louisan will be wearing a Y. M. C. A. tag if the ladies have their say.

Owing to the lack of space in this paper the Y. M. C. A. Honor Roll, could not be published this week. Watch next week's issue.

HOME GUARD PLANS DROPPED

The campaign to raise funds to equip a company of Colored Home Guard was called off, according to a statement given out Tuesday by Treasurer Charles A. Mills of the Boosters. Mills stated to an Argus representative that the club had been advised by men in high authority that owing to the new registration it may be found impossible to select enough qualified men and keep the company in full strength. Most of the men recruited would be in the draft age and as their military status might change at any time the cost of equipment would be a loss. It was decided, therefore, not to take the public's money, for the purpose until the drafting had ceased.

The campaign started out with a big boom. It is stated that more than $400 was subscribed in cash the first two days and this will be returned to the donors at once.

FIRST CALL FOR NEW MEN OCTOBER 16

Although the exact figures could not be obtained in time for publication this week, it is estimated that nearly 12,000 Colored men registered for the draft in St. Louis on the 12th. The seventeenth ward led with 3200. The sixth was second with 2132. Other heavy wards were the sixteenth 1644, nineteenth 958, twenty-second 829; making 8783 in the five heavily populated districts. Nine of the remaining 23 wards total only 848. The twenty-third is the heaviest ward to be heard from which will run close to 1000.

3847 for the Army

It is estimated that 3847 St. Louis Colored men will be inducted into the army from the new draft. Less than 800 will be drawn from the 32 to 46 class, and the balance, over 3000 will come from the 18, 19 and 20 year old class, nearly all of whom will be sent to camp, being mostly without dependents, or industrial exemption claims. St. Louis has already given 3661 Colored men in the draft and hundreds more have volunteered.

Questionnaires are being sent to the men in the 32 to 37 and the younger classes. These must be filled out and returned in seven days. The older men will be free from immediate draft but they will be subjected to the work or fight rule and must seek essential jobs.

The next draft of Colored men will be on October 16.

TO GROW LONG STRAIGHT HAIR

You Need A Real Scalp Food

There are so many so-called hair growers on the market, a large number of which are nothing more than perfumed grease, it is no wonder people get discouraged and lose faith in all hair tonics. In deciding what to use on your scalp, be sure and get a remedy of proven merit. Seeby's Quinade is a highly medicated pomade that has stood the test of time. It is a real scalp food; it stimulates and nourishes the roots of the hair, causing a natural growth of long hair.

Quinade is the invention of an expert chemist and is made under the supervision of an experienced registered pharmacist. It makes the hair soft and smooth and easy to put up in the style desired.

To get the best results from the use of Quinade, it is necessary to shampoo the scalp about every two weeks with Seeby's Quinazoap. Quinasoap is made entirely out of pure vegetable oils principally cocoanut oil, and is a thorough cleanser. Quinasoap lathers very freely. It leaves the hair soft and fluffy and imparts a refreshing feeling to the scalp unequalled by any other shampoo.

Do not accept any substitute, but insist on getting Seeby's Quinade and Seeby's Quinasoap, asking for them by the full name. Price is 25 cents each. If your druggist or dealer does not stock these two articles, ask him to obtain them for you from his jobber, sales or send us the price and we will mail them to you. Seeby Drug Co., 79 East 130th Street, New York City. Adv.

the auditorium, to listen to a scholarly sermon by Dr. Peck. His text was, St. John 4:32-34, theme, "Spiritual Dietetics." It was a peculiar subject, but long before this eminent divine concluded his wonderful message, his hearers were convinced that improper spiritual food is as great a menace to the growth and development of the soul as improper food is to the physical body. Dr. Peck appealed to the Christians to emulate the example of Jesus, when He said to His disciples "My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work."

At 7:30 Sunday night, almost every seat in the auditorium was taken. At 8 o'clock the speaker, Miss Myrtle Bernice Anderson took her place on the rostrum. The subject chosen by this young orator was, "The Deliverance of the Captives." She brought a burning message, which will be long remembered by those who heard her. This frail young woman, physically weak, though a giant in mentality, told a pathetic story of her struggle for an education. At its conclusion the members and friends gave her $40. right hand of God," was the text used by Doctor Johnson last Sunday morning. The stoning of St. Stephen and his dying words to forgive his enemies was the pastor's subject. The pastor endeavored to show how men are hounded on both sides whenever they take a stand for the right. St. Stephen had been chosen to do a particular work and he dicharged his duties, not fearing what the results would be. While the stones were being hurled from above, he cried: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." The pastor laid stress upon how we should endure hardness as good soldiers and it is needless to say that those who heard him were strengthened for future ordeals through which they must pass.

We are nearing the annual conference now and every department of the church is alive and striving to raise

DEMOCRACY

A Democracy is Founded Upon Equal Rights, Equal Duties and Equal Responsibilities For All Citizens.

"No man who looks down on his fellowman is fit to govern him."—Moorfield Storey.

BUY A U. S. BOND

The coming drive in the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign will be an unusual opportunity for the Negro. Coming at a time when he is earning more money than ever before; coming at a time when the door of opportunities is open as never before; coming at a time when our boys are doing all they can to hasten a Successful Termination of the War. Surely this is a rare opportunity.

We have faith in our Government. There is no investment safer than a Government Bond. They are good as long as Uncle Sam has a Dollar.

We are loyal to the Flag, and no one can successfully question our loyalty. We can show our faith in its stability by buying the fourth liberty bonds.

Let us have a Government Bond in every home.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

A Committee of men who, interested in Justice and Fair Play for all the people in America alike, have presented to Secretary of War Baker a printed report which shows that only about 20 per cent of the Negro draftees are trained to fight, while the remainder are put in non-combatant divisions.

The Negro Soldier's record shows that he has always been true, loyal, brave and patriotic, ever ready to do and die for his country. Eye witnesses and history attest this fact.

The President and the members of Congress know these facts. We hope this is not another form of discrimination against the Negro Soldier. All we ask is an equal opportunity.

UNDEMOCRATIC

We are in sympathy with that portion of the good citizens of Chicago who maintain that Separate Schools for the Negro children is a step backward in civilization.

According to the present day declarations as given out by President Wilson, and other leaders of the Country, "We are a United People," but the practice in many parts of the United States, is to teach the White Child from the beginning that every other Race is fit to attend their schools, and attend their churches and theatres except the Negro.

The acts of those who say, "It is to the best interest of both races," is like the cesspool which breeds race caste, race hatred, segregation, and discrimination. All of which is Undemocratic.

War Activities

Kathryn Johnson Tells of Duties and Accommodations in War Zone

Mrs. Susie S. Denny, 701 S. 13th St., has recently had a letter from her friend, Miss Kathryn Johnson, who is doing war work in France. Miss Johnson, who is a sister of Mrs. Julia Pleasant, formerly lived in Richmond where she is well known among a host of friends.

The letter follows:

"Dear Sister:

"About a week ago I wrote you that I was going to the front, but before I got started the great offensive was on and they telegraphed me not to come. So, I am here at St. Nazaire with Mrs. Hunton, just the place I wanted most to be since I didn't get to go to the front.

"I am in a Y. M. C. A. but with Rev. D. Leey Ferguson, an Episcopal minister from Louisville. He used to be in school with me at Wilberforce.

Place Located On Coast

"This place is located on the coast and we have a very fine view of the sea. When I arrived here, I met one Rev. Mr. Robinson, with whom I stopped for a week in Joplin, Mo. A Mr. Wright, whom I had met at Atlanta U. College, Tallahassee, Fla., and Mr. Stephenson, with whom I had correspondence about N. A. A. C. P. work, so it seemed like a family reunion; all are Y. M. C. A. secretaries.

"Mrs. Hunton and I stop at the same house, so we are company for each other. Our Y. M. C. A. hut is built of boards and windows. They have them already to set up when they arrive. We have one large room with long tables, where the men sit to write letters. Another large room with benches, a platform and piano that is used for an assembly room. I shall have classes there for the men who can and write.

"Our canteen is just a counter over which cakes, chocolates, tobacco, lead pencils, canned peaches, sardines, etc., are sold to the men. Most of the huts where women are have kitchens where they make cocoa, lemonade and sometime bake cookies to sell to the men. This is for the purpose of making them feel more at home. Our hut has none, however, and my work will be simply to talk with the men, hear their tales of woe, help them write letters, teach them and do what I can to create an atmosphere of home.

Not At Same Hut

"Mrs. Hunton and I are not at the same hut. I am in town, and she is just at the edge of town. Her's is larger than ours, and has a large staff and is soon to be enlarged. The men secretaries have their quarters at the huts, just a small room with a cot, table, looking glass and washstand. There are electric lights and stoves in each room. It rains here a great deal as I suppose it does everywhere now. All of us feel very sorry over the death of Quentin Roosevelt. He was a brave, heroic boy and his father must feel very proud of him even though grieved of his death and burial in an unknown grave across the German lines.

"I was in Paris during one of the bombardments by the Big Berthas, sounded like explosion, but of course you didn't know the spot where it was. I haven't received a single letter from anybody since I left America. Don't know why mails are so congested and frequently Sent you a letter with pictures of myself and Mrs. Hunton, hope you received it."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for kindness shown us during the recent illness and death of our beloved son and brother, Samuel Fleming, who departed this life Sept. 11. We thank especially Dr. Shaw for the words of consolation and Mr. W. C. Gordon for his kindness and efficient service. (Signed) Mrs. C. Grafton, mother; Mr. and Mrs. Brown, brother and sister; M. Fleming, brother.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear daughter, Lucille McCalley, who departed this life September 16, 1917;

Silently the shades of evening
Gather 'round our lonely door,
While alone we sit thinking
Of that smiling face, we see no more.
But some day we hope to meet her and this aching void to fill.
But now all we have is memory and the grave on the distant hill.

Sadly missed by parents, sisters, brothers and a host of relatives and friends.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my husband, Louis W. Fields, who fell asleep in Jesus, September 27, 1917;

Within the pearly gates beyond the golden shores,
The narrow river crossed for evermore.
Oh! happy are they who gain the other side,
And awaken in His likeness, "Satisfied."

The last tear wiped away by God's own hand,
Upon the threshold of that blissful land,
Whose songs "No ear hath heard nor heart conceived,
The things prepared for those who have believed."

Ere long we too, those glories shall behold,
We too shall tread the streets of shining gold;
All sorrow, pain, disappointment past,
When we shall meet to part no more at last!

Sadly missed by his widow, Mrs. Della Fields.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Charles Goldstine, who departed this life, Sept. 23, 1916.

The depths of our sorrow we cannot tell, at the loss of our dear husband and father we loved so well.

While he lies in peaceful sleep, his memory we shall always keep. Day by day we sadly miss him, friends may think the wound is healed, but they little know the grief that's within our hearts concealed. He shall never be forgotten, never, dear, our memory fade. Our loving hearts will always linger around the grave where he is laid.

Sadly missed by wife, Mrs. Ellen Goldstine; daughter, Mrs. Fields Voting and Mrs. Bertha Martin; Maceo, Johnnie and Eugene Goldstine, sons.

HONEST ADVERTISING PAYS

I want to say that the Steger Line of Pianos have been sold to over 250 people of this city by me, and eighty-five per cent of my business is in high class players, and mostly on good terms. I owe the steadily increasing business to progressive and educational advertising.

Do you really believe that a dealer can continually sell real, and I mean real $750.00 Player Pianos for $450.00 and continue in business? A Player Piano that sells for $750.00 should cost the dealer considerably more than $450.00 or it is not a $750.00 Player Piano.

Our line of Player Pianos are sold to us, everybody, and they are sure to give satisfaction, and we sell them on terms, than any other dealer in the city. If you side track me, you pay the penalty. Call and see the line, up For Fall and Holidays. Call Bonmot 1792-W.

FRATERNAL

NEGRO MASONRY

Last May "The United Supreme Council of Sovereign Grand Inspectors General of the Thirty-third and Last Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States of America, Colored, Whose Grand Orient is at Philadelphia," met in Cincinnati, Ohio, in thirty seventh annual session.

The grand Commander is James Francis Rickards, of Detroit, Mich. Some of the best leaders of the race were present. One of them writes of the meeting: "The minds of the negro race today are absorbed in the problems how best to dissipate from the universal mind of our brother in the white, the feeling of intolerance and bias that sometimes prevents him from arriving at a just estimate of the character and good intentions of the negro in America."

This writer makes it plain that the negro Mason has like aspirations with the white, as great a love of God, as high an estimate of honor and is as great a lover of truth.

The war, he says, compels a readjustment of the world mind to new conditions caused by it. German Kultur, opposed to true Culture should make it clear from its recent exhibitions, that we can no longer continue to concern ourselves with petty questions of creed or color if we are to successfully oppose it.

White Masons seem to have wasted much time and force in estimating "who was the first in Masonry" and whether or not Negro Masonry, which is an undisputed fact, is "legitimate."

"Masonry is a force for the betterment of mankind. Then who circumscribe its beneficent trend by denying it to any man, provided that he subscribes to its precepts."

The corresponding woman's organization to this body is known as "The Golden Circle," bearing much the same relation to the men's house as the Eastern Star to the Blue Lodge. The Grand Loyal Lady Ruler is F. Hortense Tellifer, of New York City.

The next meeting is scheduled for New Haven, Conn., second Monday in May, 1919.

Data for above supplied by H. B. Evans, of Cincinnati, and R. W. J. Jeffrey, of Detroit, Mich.

FREDERICKTOWN

By H. W. James

Cooling and evenings when one can sit on the front gazebo of winter days are the order here during the warm season. We hope the warm rains will not be a stampede and that we will have a long and pleasant fall, and are anxious to fall into the cotton to help line wood. Be the way, who is there now to help us? Some of the boys have gone to the front faced lately, will be either a conscientious objector, will what the case may be we see them.

The Sunday school annual affair was held Sept. 8. Bishop Haven was much pleased to be with us during the morning session. Brother Davis, with the help of his family, gave a picnic. We hope to have been remembered by the Holy Spirit as his presence was much felt. Rev. Johnson's subject was "Good Enduring Soldiers." Matt. 24:13. Brother Bartly Smith drove Sister Davis down in his car. After service she, the pastor, Mr. and Mrs. Allen were given a little joy ride.

GETTING TO PATRIOTIC LEVEL

One of the most astonishing things in the South is the participation in the same parades of negro women in the same ranks with the bluest-blooded aristocrats among the white ladies. They are all equally anxious to serve. Among the men, whites and black are doing equally good work in the four-minute campaigns.

Right living will produce right thinking.

If a man deceives you once, shame on him; if he deceives you twice, shame on you.

The Knights Templar (white) have been thanked by President Wilson for the gift of twelve motor ambulances costing $20,500 contributed by the 12 commanderies in Pennsylvania's first division.

The following article recently appeared in "Light", a leading publication of Louisville, Ky., that is the official organ of the white Masons of the South:

"Why I am a Knight of Pythias," is a phamplet that is being placed in the hands of worthy young men, during the campaign for membership that is now on by the Pythians of the city under the supervision of the tireless worker Grand Chancellor A. W. Lloyd. The pamphlet is neatly printed and contains many interesting paragraphs. Get one of them while they last.

AN OPPORTUNITY

For you to purchase a complete Knights Templar outfit including trunks, etc., at sacrificing prices. Only three more left. So, see me at once. R. C. Fisher, The Argus Building.

The Postmasters Council of Masons will elect officers Sunday afternoon, October 2.

When it was announced that Past Grand High Priest Broomfield had consented to give a lecture on the capitular degrees, the rumor immediately circulated among the Companions, and their attention is directed with great anticipation to Sunday, October 27, when the genius in R. A. M. will cause their minds' eye to again review the "wilderness."

It is said by some Sir Knights, that Onward Commandery has already begun its tactic and drill practice for the specific purpose of getting first honors in the competitive drill, Thanksgiving night. We'll see.

Great Praise

Dear Sir:—As I have used your medicine in my family for the last ten years, I feel it my duty to acknowledge all the merit you claim for it. Your Embrocation has in all cases proved to us to be a sure cure for Bowel Complaints, Weak Stomach, Cholera Morbus and for severe burns and bruises it has no equal in its healing power. Your Blood and Liver Tablets are the best I have ever used, and with grateful heart to you, I do most earnestly recommend your medicine to all as a great balm against sickness and pain.
I remain your grateful friend,

The hope of the world lies in the sons of America.

They are "Over there" now—a million and a half strong; they are going over daily—a million and a half more of them. Another million and a half are waiting for the call that soon will come.

Those who have been under fire have demonstrated superbly the qualities that make fighters—they have shown that the barbarous hun is no match for them.

Many an American son has gone down—has made the supreme sacrifice for his Country and liberty. Before the german horde is driven back within its own borders, many more American sons will go down. How many, depends upon us at home.

A small American army, no matter how brave, will inevitably suffer severe casualties. A gigantic American army will overwhelm the hun and bring quick victory with the least loss of life.

The lives of our sons are in our hands. The boys are ready, willing and eager. They must be trained and equipped. No time must be lost. It is up to us to provide the money necessary to make these boys invincible. We must do it and do it quickly. With our own sons already in the fight, every day's delay lays at our own doors the blood of brave American sons.

Read the casualty lists in the papers and ask yourself: "How long shall I permit this to go on?" There is only one answer: "I will do my utmost to help equip and put into the field an American army that will make short work of the hun and put a stop to the shedding of American blood."

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great Country to do his utmost to help win the war, the following firms and individuals have patriotically contributed the money to pay for this and other advertisements of the Fourth Liberty Loan:

Believing that it is the duty of every person who enjoys the freedom and privileges of citizenship in our great country to do his utmost to help win the war, the colored citizens of St. Louis are doing their duty by patriotically contributing money for this advertisement to boost the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Be a Volunteer

September 28th and 29th Will Be Volunteer Days

On these days everyone will be given an opportunity to step up and buy bonds without being solicited to do so. Places will be designated where volunteer subscriptions will be received. These places will be announced in the papers and by signs. Your card will be on file there. Cards of those who do not volunteer will be used for active solicitation, which will begin Monday, September 30th. No one will be overlooked.

Do not wait for some one to come after your subscription. Show that you, too, can volunteer for your Country's service, just as our boys "over there" did.

Figure out now the very maximum you can subscribe. Be ready when Volunteer Days come. This is no time for half-way measures. Half-way measures won't push our boys across the Rhine. It is up to us to buy bonds with every uninvested dollar we own, plus every dollar we can save by careful, frugal living for six months to come.

You don't have to pay all cash for your bonds. You can make your first payment from cash in the bank, and take care of the balance out of your daily, weekly or monthly savings.

The forced saving you do now will mean a nice nest egg later, for the bonds you buy now and pay for as you go along, will prove a splendid investment that will pay you a good interest every six months. After the war, the bonds will be worth more than you paid for them. Don't hesitate to do your duty and do it quickly. "Don't let the SON go down."

NIFTY BILL OF GOOD ACTS AT BOOKER WASHINGTON

Another nifty show is offered the Booker Washington patrons this week. The bill is headed by Willie Too Sweet, the crazy Kid, is making good in his first appearance here as a single. He is maintaining his popularity with his kiddish comedy. He sings several songs which take well and has his own original monologue. His tragic burlesque of a hungry man is a big setback.

Allen and Stokes form a new combination, but a good one. Mr. Allen is the well known "eighth of minor chord" fame. Miss Stokes is new on the stage, but is doing well; being graceful, good looking, and has a sweet soprano voice. Allen and his violin as usual, get in their work, doing stunts from rags to opera. The song numbers, "I'm Sorry I Made You Cry," "The Jelly Roll Blues," and "Fish-a-boogie Blues" are all big hits. The act pleases well.

The Ragtime Trio closes the bill. They open with a humorous musical piece entitled "Just How Much I'm Liking You." Andrew Tribble, as a female impersonator, has a comic part that is full of fun. Daisy Martin formerly with Smart Set, sings "Everybody's Man is My Man Too," and immediately wins the favor of the audience. Sam Gray gets the hand when he appears as sailor uniform and sings in a melodious class, "When the Bell in the Lighthouse Rings." Tribble pulls off "My Secrets" and makes a hit. The trio closes with "Nobody Knows What the Thing Called Love Will Do." The songs in verse, the two female characters and the house goes wild when Tribble's wig is torn off. The entire act is very good being above the average.

NEXT WEEK

Four star acts are booked for the Booker Washington next week. They will include Davis and Lillian, an eccentric acrobatic act; Benton Overstreet, the composer, and Estelle Harris, the singer; Franklin Dogs, and Rastus Anderson, a comedian.

This bill should be well up to the high standard of shows being presented at this theatre lately.

Mr. Charles Turpin visited Chicago, Indianapolis, Louisville and Cincinnati this week, in the interest of Rabbles for Doctor Bundy.

OLYMPIA STARTS NEW POLICY NEXT WEEK

The Olympia Theatre inaugurates it new feature policy next week. Special high class cfeature plays will be shown on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The admission price these days will be Adults 10c and children 5c. On other days the price remains the same—5 cents to all.

Next Tuesday, Sept. 24, "The Raised, the Beast of Berlin," will be shown. "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," is in seven reels, and recently was completed at Universal City, Cal., after six months in production.

The picture shows the kaiser to be a war maniac, drunk with power, and possessing an insane desire to place the world under German rule. From well known authorities and their writings personal characteristics of the German ruler and interesting, yet brutal, incidents of his life, have been woven into an absorbing story which for the most part is laid in Belgium and Berlin.

On Thursday, Sept. 26, beautiful Rita Jolivet, in an Eight Act, Special production de luxe, entitled, "Lest We Forget." It is a mighty presentation of the causes that led America into the great war. It shows graphically the sinking of the Lusitania. An exquisite romance gives a tender human note to the great spectacle.

ST. LOUIS TO HAVE DOWN TOWN A NEGRO HIGH CLASS VAUDEVILLE THEATRE

A big company has been formed, headed by Richard De Barrett, and has taken over the Imperial Theatre at 10th and Pine Streets. It will operate this famous house, in which many of the greatest stars of the American stage have played, as a high class vaudeville theatre, devoted exclusively to the Negros of St. Louis and vicinity, offering the best entertainment yet seen at popular prices.

The show will consist of five big class vaudeville acts, super feature pictures, and an occasional traveling attraction such as In Old Kentucky. The Smarter Set, Richards and Pringle's Minstrels and numerous others.

The Imperial is being thoroughly renovated and put in spic-span shape, and, when it opens its doors it will have a competent and efficient crew of Colored attaches throughout.

Mr. James H. Harris has been engaged as Musical Director, and this fact assures that the orchestra will be very good.

St. Louis has long been in need of a downtown high priced theatre for the entertainment of the Negro theatre goers and no doubt this will be a welcome announcement.

Matinees will be given daily at 2:30 P. M. with the exception that on Sundays and holidays the matinee will start at 1:30.

Every evening there will be two shows, 7 P. M. and 9 P. M.

Prices of admission—Gallery, 10c; Balcony, 20c; Lower Floor, 30.; Box Seats, 50c.

The first week's bill, beginning Monday September 23 at 7 P. M. will be: Tabor and Green, two Colored singing comedians in "Two Disciples of Nicodemus in Songland;" Downs and Gomez, Two Spanish singers of high class ability; Gwen De Lany and Georginia Bur Dell, have an unusually clever sketch entitled, "Mary's Day Out;" Dan Monks, many merry capers that will amuse the little folks; and Albert Donnelly, a showgraphist, will complete the bill.

The screen display will consist of feature photo-plays, War Reviews, Animated weekly and comedy pictures. Mayor Kiel and Prof. Frank L. Williams will speak at the opening Monday night.
